Berlin, March 12, N. S.

GEneral Sonsfelt's Regiment of Dragoons which lies in Pomerania, has received Orders to remove from thence on the 26th Instant to Halberstadt; and 'tis reported that several other Regiments, as Schwerin's, Vrek's, Prince William's, and Gustavus Anhalt's, are ordered to hold themselves in Readiness to march. These Motions it is thought proceed from the Apprehensions this Court have of that of Manheim's intending to oblige the Inhabitants of Bergue and Juliers to swear Eventual Homage to the Prince of Sultzbach.

Hague, March 19, N. S. There are several Letters in Town, which mention the Death of the Duke of Wirtemberg to have happened suddenly on the 12th Instant, tho' as yet that Prince's Minister here has had no direct Notice of it. We have a Report here of a Dispute that has just risen between Prince William of Hesse Cassel as Count of Hanau, and the Court of Mentz; on Account of some Baillage, which was till the Death of the late Count of Hanau, enjoyed in common by him and the Electors of Mentz, but has since been adjudged by the Aulick Council wholly to belong to the latter; upon which his Highness, it is said, has sent some Troops to maintain his Possession. As to the Affair of Bergue and Juliers, the Court of Manheim loudly disavow the Intention imputed to them by that of Berlin, of obliging the Inhabitants of those Countries to swear Eventual Homage to the Prince of Sultzbach.

Whitehall, February 15, 1736-7.

Whereas an Anonymous Letter, dated February N. D. 1736-7, directed, To Mr. Manning, Cooper, at Execution Dock, Wapping, was received by the said Mr. Manning, requiring him to send Twenty Guineas to a Place therein mentioned, and threatning him, in Case of Refusal, with Death, and to set Fire to his House, Shop, and Yards: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, I do hereby promise to pay the further Sum of Twenty Pounds for the said Offender or Offenders, that shall be discovered and convicted as aforesaid. Robert Manning.

Whitehall, February 18, 1736-7

Whereas three anonymous Letters have been lately sent to the House of Mrs. Mary Wightwick, Widow, in Hatton Garden, threatening to burn her Houses in Town and Country, and to shoot her in her Coach, unless a Sum of Money was laid upon the Corner of the Step of her Door: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HARRINGTON.

And as an Encouragement for the Discovery of such Offender or Offenders, I do hereby promise to pay the Sum of Fifty Guineas, upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, to such Person or Persons as shall be entitled thereto. Mary Wightwick.

Notice is hereby given, That the Company of Armourers and Brasiers, London, will Lett a Lease of several Warehouses, and the Houses over the Gateway lying in Globe-yard, opposite to the Custom-House in Thames
